Ksour in desert

Dear Princetonian,

EMBARK ON A GRAND VOYAGE following in the wake of ancient mariners, navigating fascinating ports of call in Morocco and Spain's Canary Islands. Begin with a three-night stay in the heart of Marrakech, exploring the hidden quarters of the city's famed medina, visiting jaw-dropping palace museums and gardens, and learning about Morocco's culture and cuisine. This experience culminates in a spectacular 1,001 Nights-themed gala dinner in a private tented camp.

Then travel to bustling Casablanca to board the Sea Cloud Spirit, an elegant three-masted sailing vessel launched in 2021. The ship's old-world elegance, seamlessly blended with modern amenities, unparalleled service, and exquisite cuisine, make it an experience unto itself. From Casablanca, sail down the Moroccan coast to Agadir for an unforgettable adventure into the Berber countryside, exploring the medieval market town of Taroudant.

Next, venture west and delve into the exceptional natural history and cultural experiences of the Canary Islands, with stops in Lanzarote and Tenerife. Uncover dramatic lunar landscapes shaped by centuries of volcanic activity, take in the colorful markets and unique Canarian art and architecture of beautifully preserved medieval towns, and marvel at the beauty of Tenerife from Spain's highest peak at Teide National Park.

Excursions off the ship will be complemented by time at sea to hear from an exceptional line-up of expert lecturers and enjoy the Sea Cloud Spirit's smooth ride. Let this adventure be a symphony of cultural discovery, nature's marvels, and maritime elegance.

Princeton participants will be joined by those from Williams College, National Trust for Historic Preservation, and the Santa Barbara Museum of Art.

With kind regards,
